

THE DAVID BROCKETT AWARD 2023
FOR BACKSTAGE ACHIEVEMENT

CRITERIA

- For theatre practitioners working backstage and/or front-of-house, including designers.
- The award encompasses work on any groups' productions and is not limited to Theatre New Zealand TheatreFest performances.
- The award is for current practitioners, not a life-time achievement award as this is covered in another award.
- This is an annual award.
- The Group nominates their person by due date, prior to National Finals, with this form and details of the nominee's work during the year.
- A three member panel from the Executive will select the winner.
- If unsuccessful, individuals can be nominated again. Applications must be re-submitted annually. Winners are not excluded from being re-nominated.
- The nominee is not informed of their nomination.
- Winner is announced at Theatre New Zealand's ShowCase.
- Winner receives a certificate for perpetuity, but the trophy with winner's name on it is returned for the next recipient.
